Birth: May 10, 1810
Spartanburg County
South Carolina, USA

Death: Jan. 31, 1887
Sherrill
Texas County
Missouri, USA

Was Said that she was full blooded Cherokee. Found her Death records in the J.J. Watts Collection #55. Elizabeth was married to Samuel Franklin Giddens He died in 1862, was a wagon boss master in the Civil war. She married 2nd John Reed. She had 15 children to Samuel 10 girls & 5 Boy's At her death she had 118 grand children, 48 G. Grand children. Samuel was said to be buried on the side of the Wire Road. They had 4 boy's in the Union Army. Two boys went with their Dad & the other two went in 1864. After her Husband Samuel died she went up to Conway Ark. She stayed their till it got to bad. The Conederates issued a general order to join the Conederate Army. To keep her young children safe She took off to Rolla while the two boy's Samuel Bradford, & John went to join the Union Army. This is my Gr, gr, gr, Grandmother
